TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

COURSE: Fire Officer Lever 2

Lead Instructors: John Novak

Dates: Start June 22, 2017 Ends September 9, 2017 (Thursdays 7 PM)

Fee: $150.00 (outside Toms River)

Course description:

The fire officer level 2 class builds on the fire officer level 1 class. This course is structured for the current company officer (Lieutenant) and who wants to be promoted to a Captain's level position. The course requires that the student be able to utilize an on-line training program and complete required written assignments each week. The course will require critical thinking skills to complete the required assignments that will include tactics, leadership and administrative functions. Students will be required to attend classroom sessions to meet with the instructors. During these sessions students will be required to discuss fireground issues, discuss assignments and complete NFPA 1021 required JPRs. At the completion of the course the students will have the opportunity to take the State issued fire officer level 2 test. (This course does not teach to the State test. You are responsible for any test questions from J & B Principles and practices)

The course uses the following text books:

"Fire Officer's Handbook of Tactics" 3rd or 4th Edition, author John Norman

*"Fire Officer Principles and Practices" 3rd Edition with Navigation Access code Jones & Bartlett

Text books will be provided at no cost to Toms River Twp. Firefighters and to contracted Fire departments. Students already issued books will not be given new ones.

Out of town students need to provide their own text books and Navigation Access Code.

Current firefighter Level 1 Certification from the NJ Division of Fire Safety is required.

Prerequisite:

Fire Officer Level 1, IMS-200, (IMS-300 preferred.)

Class size is limited to: 12
